

Toll doubtful for Dulwich match

WYCOMBE Wanderers who stole a march on their main rivals by winning at Tooting and Mitcham on Saturday, have a chance to strengthen Isthmian League title bid with a home game against Dulwich Hamlet tomorrow (Saturday).

Goals by Terry Glynn and Paul West gave Wanderers a 2-1 victory at Sandy Lane, while leaders Slough were held to a draw by Barking and Enfield lost at home to Hendon. Slough are still firm favourites but the gap is closing.

Manager Mike Keen seems set to make two enforced changes for the visit of Dulwich, who are going through a depressing run having lost their last eight competitive games, including six in the league.

Striker Gary Toll suffered a leg injury in the match, while West himself, has persistent problems with his right ankle.

Bruising

Both must be considered doubtful, Ken Wilson or Terry Scott could come in for Toll, although Andy Hunt has been making a name for himself as a goalscorer in the Reserves. West's place will go either to Jimmy Jacobs, now recovered from influenza, or Mick Hollifield.

Paul Birdseye, who suffered severe bruising to his lower back in a tobogganing accident on Sunday hopes to be fit. Blues certainly have strength in depth, with adequate cover in almost every position.

Hunt scores twice

Wycombe Reserves 2, Harrow Reserves 0

TWO Andy Hunt goals were enough to give Wycombe Reserves a win over top of the table Harrow Reserves in the Suburban League North Division at Loakes Park on Saturday.

Both goals came in the second half after a scrappy first half. Simon Dexter, a promising midfield player, was put through the middle early in the match but the goalkeeper narrowed the angle well and the shot went wide.

Hunt opened the scoring six minutes into the second half when he was on hand to get the final touch to a scramble in the goalmouth. Then in the 71st minute he scored a goal of the highest quality.

He looked to have taken the ball too wide and too far after beating the keeper, but turned and shot powerfully in one movement.

Wanderers face Chelsea

CLIVE Walker, who has recently set up home in High Wycombe, is in the Chelsea line-up for their friendly match against Wycombe Wanderers at Loakes Park on Tuesday night.

Walker, an exciting goalscoring winger, has been named in the Chelsea squad of 14 for the game, which should attract a fair crowd.

Also in the line-up will be talented midfield player Ian Britton, defenders Graham Wilkins and Micky Nutton plus Chris Hutchings a recent acquisition from Harrow Borough who scored on his league debut.

Chelsea squad: R. Iles, G. Wilkins, M. Nutton, D. Jasper, C. Pates, C. Sulley, C. Hutchings, K. Hales, I. Britton, T. Elmes, P. Driver, P. Williams, C. Walker, M. Turkington.

Wycombe's scheduled midweek friendly against Holmer Green on Tuesday was postponed due to the state of the Loakes Park pitch. The ground had not recovered from Saturday's match, due to the snow and generally icy conditions. The slight thaw came too late to save the game.
